THE MASTER IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

is a natural extension of the Bachelor in Political Science. It is designed to strengthen the training acquired at the Bachelor level, to develop research skills in political science and to prepare students for the next stage of their professional development, whether they choose to enter the labour market or pursue an academic career. The programme offers four concentrations, which consist partly of courses in two thematic areas that are taken during the first year and are mandatory for students in the relevant concentration. Students may also do a work placement.

POSSIBLE CONCENTRATIONS:
• Public action and multilevel governance
• Political mobilisation and communication
• Political theory
• International relations
