Master's Programme

THE MASTER OF THEOLOGY

is a 120-credit programme offered jointly by the University of Geneva and the University of Lausanne (AZUR Formation). In order to satisfy the increasing demand for flexibility, this Master can be attended in person or a distance thanks to e-learning courses: students can decide whether to take each course in person or in a distance via one interactive internet platform.

The Master's degree aims to acquire in-depth, specialized knowledge and skills in theology from a generalist perspective. Out of the 7 areas of study in theology, students select 6 and complete a programme of 12 credits within each area.

With the 18 remaining elective course credits, students can reinforce their general training in theology (for example via courses in the 7th area) or specialise in one or two of the proposed areas of study.
