Master's Programme

MASTER ÈS LETTRES, DISCIPLINE MÉDÉVIALE STUDIES

The Master's in Medieval Studies offers students comprehensive insight into medieval culture and ensures they have the necessary methodological tools to study it. It is a cross-disciplinary programme taught by several different units, with professors specialised in medieval studies from the departments of general history, philosophy, art history, musicology, and languages and literature. The programme prepares students for further education and research and for careers in fields such as culture and journalism.

STUDY PROGRAMME

3 semesters (max. 6 semesters) | 90 ECTS credits

Chosen discipline

MOBILITY

Master's students are encouraged to go on exchange, if possible for a single semester, given the duration of the programme. Students may go on exchange regardless of how many credits they have completed at the Faculty. Under regulations, students may earn no more than 24 credits (2 modules) while on exchange. The dissertation cannot be substituted.

PROFESSIONAL PROSPECTS

Unlike other fields of study, Arts degrees are not geared toward a specific career and graduates generally need to gain additional experience on the job.

Job opportunities may be found in the following areas: teaching, journalism, radio, television, publishing, libraries, documentation centres, archives, bookshops, museums, heritage protection organisations, international organisations, diplomacy, private companies, banks, administration, staff management, tourism, public relations, cultural activities, art dealerships, galleries, and literary, linguistic or philosophical research and writing, etc.

UNIVERSITY TAXES

500 CHF / semester
