Master's Programme

MASTER ÈS LETTRES, DISCIPLINE HISPANIC LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND CIVILISATION

The Spanish Unit offers classes in Spanish literature spanning 25 countries, from the Middle Ages to the present day. The programme focuses on the Golden Age, cultural production in the post-Civil-War period, and the rise of Latin American literature. Intense training is also provided in both diachronic and synchronic Spanish linguistics. Students interested in a language-teaching career can also take classes in teaching Spanish as a foreign language. In addition, classes are available on the cultural role of cinema and popular music in the Hispanic world.

STUDY PROGRAMME

MOBILITY

Master's students are encouraged to go on exchange, if possible for a single semester, given the duration of the programme. Students may go on exchange regardless of how many credits they have completed at the Faculty. Under regulations, students may earn no more than 24 credits (2 modules) while on exchange. The dissertation cannot be substituted.

PROFESSIONAL PROSPECTS

Unlike other fields of study, Arts degrees are not geared toward a specific career and graduates generally need to gain additional experience on the job.

Job opportunities may be found in the following areas: teaching, journalism, radio, television, publishing, libraries, documentation centres, archives, bookshops, museums, heritage protection organisations, international organisations, diplomacy, private companies, banks, administration, staff management, tourism, public relations, cultural activities, art dealerships, galleries, and literary, linguistic or philosophical research and writing, etc.
