ADMISSION CONDITIONS

A Bachelor of Arts with at least 60 credits in the given discipline, or an equivalent degree. Additional courses may be required depending on prior studies.

Master's Programme

MASTER ÈS LETTRES, DISCIPLINE FRENCH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

With this programme, students will study how French is used, how it interacts with other languages and how it is learnt. It covers areas such as linguistics, sociolinguistics, literature, culture and didactics. Students learn how to critically analyse the language, and its varieties and descriptions. They also look at intercultural phenomena and multilingualism, covering linguistic policies and ideologies, and literature in the French-speaking world. In addition, they study issues relating to teaching and learning French as a foreign language.

MOBILITY

Master's students are encouraged to go on exchange, if possible for a single semester, given the duration of the programme. Students may go on exchange regardless of how many credits they have completed at the Faculty. Under regulations, students may earn no more than 24 credits (2 modules) while on exchange. The dissertation cannot be substituted.
