ADMISSION CONDITIONS

A Bachelor of Arts with at least 60 credits in the given discipline, or an equivalent degree. Additional courses may be required depending on prior studies.

Master's Programme

MASTER ÈS LETTRES, DISCIPLINE MUSICOLOGY

Musicology comprises a number of fields characterised by a range of approaches and specific aims, including the history of music, musical theories and notations, aesthetics, sociology, musical analysis and epistemology, source-related philology and how it is applied in the production process, comparative studies, acoustics, organology (the history and craftsmanship of musical instruments), and the use of IT in music.

Students will acquire basic historical and technical knowledge as well as research methods, and develop their critical thinking. Several partners are involved in teaching exchanges for the programme, in some of the core subjects and in providing internships.

MOBILITY

Master's students are encouraged to go on exchange, if possible for a single semester, given the duration of the programme. Students may go on exchange regardless of how many credits they have completed at the Faculty. Under regulations, students may earn no more than 24 credits (2 modules) while on exchange. The dissertation cannot be substituted.
